

Anne D'Antuono

Education:

Temple University
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
Ph.D. in Sociology
January, 1992

Yale University
New Haven, Connecticut
M.S.N. in Psychiatric-Mental Health Nursing
May, 1978

Fairfield University
Fairfield, Connecticut
B.S.N. in Nursing
May, 1974

St. Saviours High School
Park Slope, New York
Regents and Academic Diplomas
June, 1967

Work Experience:

St. Francis College
Department of Nursing
Brooklyn Heights, New York
September, 2017 – Present

Employed as a full-time faculty member. Presently teaching nursing seminar II, and both theory and clinical courses involving psychiatric-mental health and community health nursing within this baccalaureate nursing program. Co-Moderator/Moderator of Nursing Club for academic year 2019-2026.

St. Paul's School of Nursing
Formerly known as Saint Vincent Catholic Medical Centers (SVC MC) School of Nursing, Brooklyn and Queens Service Division, and Catholic Medical Centers (CMC) School of Nursing, Brooklyn and Queens, Inc.
August, 1987 – August, 2017

Employed as a full-time faculty member. Taught both theory and clinical courses involving psychiatric-mental health nursing to first and second level students at this two-year associate degree program. Participated in NCLEX Review Course covering psychiatric-mental health nursing content (June 1994-1999).

Queensborough Community College
School of Nursing
Bayside, New York

January, 2007 – June, 2011

Employed as an adjunct clinical instructor in psychiatric-mental health nursing for graduating nursing students in this two-year associate degree program.

Adelphi University
School of Nursing
Garden City, New York

June, 2006 – Present

Employed as a senior adjunct instructor in psychiatric-mental health and community health nursing clinical rotations within this baccalaureate nursing program. Also facilitate a capstone experience (200 clinical hours) for graduating nursing students during the Fall, Spring and Summer semesters.

College of Mount St. Vincent
School of Nursing
Fresh Meadows, New York

Fall, 2000 Semester
Spring, 2001 Semester

Employed as adjunct instructor to teach “Research Process in Nursing” (Fall Semester), and “Theoretical Frameworks in Nursing” (Spring Semester) to Registered Nurses pursuing a Bachelor of Science Degree with a Major in Nursing.

National League for Nursing
NLN/ANR Course
New York, New York

June 1989
June 1990
June 1991

Employed as a psychiatric-mental health nursing instructor responsible for helping nursing students prepare for the Registered Nurse Licensing Exam (NCLEX).

Gateway Day Treatment Program
Woodmere, New York

Sept., 1984 – August, 1987

Employed as a full-time psychiatric clinical nurse specialist (CNS) in the day treatment program for chronic psychiatric patients. Designed and implemented an activities of daily living program to address the psychosocial needs to these patients. Conducted patient education on an individual and group basis to ensure medication compliance. Assessment and treatment through individual, group, and family psychotherapy.

Peninsula Counseling-Center
Woodmere, New York

Nov., 1984 – Oct., 1989

Employed as a part-time outpatient therapist. Conducted psychiatric assessments, individual and family psychotherapy for individuals with varied psychiatric disorders.

Capital Region Mental Health Center
Hartford, Connecticut

Nov., 1983 – August, 1984

Worked full-time with a caseload of 75 psychiatric clients. Designed and implemented various treatment groups. Developed a psychosocial program for noncompliant and resistive clients. Conducted weekly intakes and evaluations for prospective clients. Served as consultant to day treatment program. Conducted individual, group, family and multifamily psychotherapy.

St. Joseph's College
School of Nursing
West Hartford, Connecticut

Sept., 1982 – June, 1984

Employed full-time as a faculty member in this baccalaureate nursing program. Responsible for theory courses in psychiatric-mental health nursing and clinical supervision of junior nursing students. Supervised advanced clinical placement for senior nursing students in the area of community health nursing. Advised senior nursing students and R.N. students conducting clinical research. Designed and implemented research study identifying factors associated with decreased enrollment of R.N. students. Participated in grant proposal for development of graduate program (St. Joseph College – Institute of Living).

Fairmont Psychiatric Institute
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

January, 1982 – August, 1982

Employed part-time as a staff nurse floating to various psychiatric units within this hospital.

Philadelphia Psychiatric Center
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

April, 1981 – January, 1982

Worked full-time as a psychiatric clinical nurse specialist (CNS). Conducted individual, group and family psychotherapy. Supervised clinical work of nursing staff. Coordinated and conducted in-service education.

Latter Day Saints Hospital
Salt Lake City, Utah

Nov., 1978 – Sept., 1979

Worked full-time as a crisis coordinator and psychiatric clinical nurse specialist (CNS). Provided psychiatric evaluation of clients in the emergency room for possible admission, community referrals or involuntary commitment procedures. Created, coordinated and supervised the crisis team for weekend and night coverage. Provided continued education of crisis staff in crisis intervention theory, psychiatric assessment and comprehensive referral/discharge processes. Provided psychiatric evaluation and consultation to nursing units throughout the hospital through patient-centered meetings and in-service teaching. Acted as resource to head nurse with difficult personnel problems. Provided liaison with other crisis centers in the community.

Hall-Brooke Psychiatric Hospital
Westport, Connecticut

April, 1975 – Sept., 1976

Worked full-time as a staff nurse. Responsible for psychiatric assessment, treatment and discharge planning. Participated in individual group, family and multifamily psychotherapy.

Certification and Licensure

January, 1997 – Present

Nurse Practitioner in Psychiatry granted by New York State Education Department.

October, 1975 – Present

Registered Professional Nurse licensed by New York State Education Department.

Publications and Presentations

With Faculty at Saint Vincent Catholic Medical Centers School of Nursing co-designed and co-presented poster titled, “Pulling It Together to Critically Think”. 7th Annual Faculty Development Conference, “Innovative Teaching Strategies in Associate Degree Education”, New York State Associate Degree Nursing Council, Albany, New York, April 11, 2003.

With Faculty at Saint Vincent Catholic Medical Centers School of Nursing co-designed and co-presented poster titled, “Letting Go to Foster Leadership”. 5th Annual Faculty Development Conference, “Leadership and Management in the Nursing Curriculum”, New York State Associate Degree Nursing Council, Albany, New York, April 27, 2001.

With one senior student at Catholic medical Centers School of Nursing, co-authored an article titled “Children and Stress”, Nurse Educator, Volume 23, Number 4, July/August, 1998, pp. 5-7.

With a group of seven senior students at Catholic Medical Centers School of Nursing, co-authored an article titled, “Creating Solutions to an Ethical Dilemma”, Nurse Educator, Volume 22, Number 4, July/August, 1997, p.6.

With Faculty at Catholic Medical Centers School of Nursing, co-authored an article titled “Introducing Nursing Research at the Associate Degree Level”, Nurse Educator, Volume 20, Number 5, September/October, 1995, p. 5.

Designed course and study guide titled, “Principles of Therapeutic Interaction.” This course is presented to 1st level nursing students.

Honors and Awards

“Extraordinary Person of the Year” Award, St. Francis College Department of Nursing, May, 2026.

Certificates of appreciation awarded by National Council of State Board of Nursing, Inc. for participation as NCLEX Item Development Panel Member. Dates of Participation were October, 1996; June, 2014; November, 2015; February, 2019; August, 2019 and December, 2019.

Award of Gratitude for dedicated commitment to “Women Helping Women”, October, 1995.

Selected as “Nurse of Distinction” representing Catholic Medical Centers School of Nursing, May, 1994.

Member of Sigma Theta Tau, My Chi Chapter at Fairfield University since April, 1992.

Temple University Fellowship, Department of Sociology, 1981 to 1982.

Member of Yale University School of Nursing Honor Society since November, 1978.

Selected for “Who’s Who in American Universities and Colleges”, Fairfield University, 1973.

Community Activities

Member of Parish Council – Our Lady of Angels Church, Bay Ridge, Brooklyn.

Eucharistic Minister – Our Lady of Angels Church, Bay Ridge, Brooklyn.

Sunday Lector – Our Lady of Angels Church, Bay Ridge, Brooklyn.

Co-Coordinator of Spirit Committee – Our Lady of Angels Church, Bay Ridge, Brooklyn.