ST FRANCIS COLLEGE

Department of Economics and Finance

Assistant Professor of Economics and Finance (Tenure Track Position)

The Department of Economics and Finance at St. Francis College (the "College") invites applicants for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position to begin in September 2023. We are especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through their research, teaching, and service. We are committed to building a culturally diverse and pluralistic faculty.

Our department offers majors in Economics and Finance and minors in Finance, Public Policy, and International Economics. Preference will be given to candidates with expertise and an active interest in Finance or Financial Economics, well acquainted with both conventional and non-conventional schools of economic thought, able to teach courses in Finance and conduct research in the field, and willing to serve the college community.

Job Summary: In addition to courses in their areas of expertise, candidates should be prepared to teach a wide range of introductory, intermediate, and advanced Finance courses, including Principles of Finance, Personal Finance, Managerial Finance, Investment Analysis, and Real-Estate Finance as well as keep an active research agenda in the field, including Fintech, Green and/or Socially-Responsible Finance. Successful candidates will demonstrate a commitment to building and sustaining a diverse community through their teaching, scholarship, and service.

Pay Range: $55,000 - $90,000 per year
The advertised pay scale reflects the minimum and maximum salary range for this role. The specific compensation offered to a candidate may be dependent on a variety of factors including, but not limited to; the candidate's experience, education, credentials and/or qualifications.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Teach 12-credit hours each Fall and Spring semester, advise students, and serve on departmental and College committees.
- Participate in the formulation of course assignments, accreditation activities, and course and program assessments. Perform other essential departmental functions as assigned by the Department Chairperson.

- Prepare and teach College-approved courses following approved course descriptions and class schedules, including developing syllabi and reading lists and keeping each course taught complete and up to date.
- Perform research and publish as required for a tenure-track position.
- Respond to and work with multiple constituencies, including students, faculty, and staff.
- Possess a proven ability to effectively work with culturally, linguistically, and ethnically diverse faculty, staff, and students.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills and strong Information technology literacy skills.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Ph.D. in Economics, Finance, or related fields from an accredited institution at the time of appointment. ABD doctoral candidates will also be considered.
- At least two (2) years of previous College-level teaching experience in Economics and, or Finance is strongly preferred.
- Demonstrated ability in teaching, curriculum development, and assessment.
- Effective interpersonal communication skills and ability to work with a diverse college
- Communication skills and cross-cultural abilities to maximize effectiveness with diverse groups of students, colleagues, and community members.
- Commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion in the workplace and efforts to participate in the College's culture.
- Proficiency in the econometric or statistical analysis of financial data using programming languages such as R, Python, or Java or commercial software such as Stata, SAS, or EViews.
- Ability to interact collaboratively and professionally with diverse groups and constituencies throughout the College.
- Culturally sensitive with an understanding and appreciation of a multi-cultural college community and the Franciscan traditions of St. Francis College.
- Strong commitment to the College's mission and its students, faculty, and staff.

Interested applicants can apply by clicking here. Deadline for applications: December 15, 2022.

About St. Francis College:

We are committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion and serve one of the most diverse student populations in New York City and the country. St. Francis College has a 160-year history of serving New York City's low-income, working class and immigrant families, and a mosaic of diverse individuals, offering our students opportunity—the opportunity to pursue a college education that is accessible and affordable and to use their hard-earned degree and experience to build careers and achieve economic mobility. Today, St. Francis College's student body is 28%

Hispanic, 24% Black, and 26% White. Over 60% of students are female and 47% receive federal Pell grants. Candidates who are culturally competent and have the professional skills, experience and desire to engage with a collaborative and diverse college and community, are particularly sought after for employment with the College. To learn more about St. Francis College and our commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion, please visit us at https://www.sfc.edu/.

St. Francis College is committed to providing opportunities to all persons without regard to sex, race, creed, color, religion, national origin, citizenship status, age, disability, marital status, gender identity or expression, predisposing genetic characteristics, status as a victim of domestic violence, sexual orientation, status as a Vietnam-era or special disabled veteran, or any other characteristic protected by law in its education programs and activities or employment. The College is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity employer and we are strongly committed to equity and to increasing the diversity of our faculty, staff, students, and the curriculum. Applications by members of all underrepresented groups are encouraged.