Athletic Trainers (Three Positions)

St. Francis College ("College") is an NCAA Division I member of the Northeast Conference ("NEC") and we are currently recruiting for the following three athletic trainer positions:

- Full-time Associate Head Athletic Trainer
- Full-time Assistant Athletic Trainer
- Part-Time Athletic Trainer

Summary of Duties and Responsibilities for each position:

All positions are reporting to the College’s Head Athletics Trainer. Responsibilities for these positions include, but are not limited to, the provision of training, treatment and rehabilitation services necessary for the prevention and treatment of athletics injuries for assigned teams on behalf of the College. Primary responsibilities are to provide athletic training services in-house to student-athletes of the College. Occasional travel with sports teams is required.

Minimum Qualifications for each Position:

- Bachelor’s degree in a Commission on the Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE) accredited program or National Athletics Training Association Board Certification.
- New York State Athletic Training License, or eligibility to obtain the license.
- Experience as an athletics trainer, preferably at an NCAA Division I or II institution, commensurate with the responsibilities of the position.
- CPR and AED certified.

Interested applicants can apply by clicking here.

About St. Francis College:

St. Francis College ("SFC of the "College") is revitalizing as we prepare to open a brand-new, state-of-the-art campus in downtown Brooklyn. We are a College rooted in a commitment to radical hospitality, to character formation, to inter-faith dialogue, and to creating conditions for students to learn the technical skills necessary to navigate a 21st Century workplace, while never losing sight of the importance of ensuring that all students learn to cultivate their humanity.

SFC is committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion and we serve one of the most diverse student populations in New York City and the country. St. Francis College has a 160-year history of serving New York City’s low-income, working class and immigrant families, and a mosaic of diverse individuals, offering our students opportunity—the opportunity to pursue a college education that is accessible and affordable and to use their hard-earned degree and experience to build careers and achieve economic mobility. Today, St. Francis College’s student body is 28% Hispanic, 24% Black, and 26% White. Over 60% of students are female and 47% receive federal Pell grants. Candidates who are culturally competent and have the professional skills, experience and desire to engage with a collaborative and diverse college and community, are particularly sought after for employment with the College. To learn more about St. Francis College and our commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion, please visit us at https://www.sfc.edu/.

St. Francis College is committed to providing opportunities to all persons without regard to sex, race, creed, color, religion, national origin, citizenship status, age, disability, marital status, gender identity or expression, predisposing genetic characteristics, status as a victim of domestic violence, sexual orientation, status as a Vietnam-era or special disabled veteran, or any other characteristic protected by law in its education programs and activities or employment. The College is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity employer and we are strongly committed to equity and to increasing the diversity of our faculty, staff, students, and the curriculum. Applications by members of all underrepresented groups are encouraged.